

RESEARCHING CAREER GUIDANCE

FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE:

knowledge, practice, and power

6th ECADOC
Summer School
9-14 June 2019: Malta

INVITATION TO APPLY FOR PARTICIPATION AT THE 6TH ECADOC DOCTORAL SUMMER SCHOOL MALTA 9-14 JUNE 2019

After the very successful previous editions of the ECADOC Doctoral Summer School held in Padua (2014), Paris (2015), Lausanne (2016), Mannheim (2017), and Athens (2018), we are happy to invite you to our next encounter, which will take place in Malta.

The programme will provide selected participants with opportunities to:

- ✓ Explore the intersections between career guidance and social justice
- ✓ Investigate how research can be mobilised to further equity agendas
- ✓ Present their work in progress
- ✓ Discuss the challenges encountered during their doctoral journey
- ✓ Benefit from advice and support from ECADOC faculty and peers
- ✓ Advance their career development through publications in scientific journals, and participation in international projects

Keynote presenters include the three Summer School organisers, Prof Ronald G. Sultana (University of Malta), Prof Rie Thomsen (Aarhus University), and Prof Tristram Hooley (University of Derby), together with other guest speakers such as Prof David Blustein (Boston College Lynch School of Education) and Dr Gideon Arulmani (Promise Foundation, Bangalore). Members of the ECADOC scientific committee will also contribute to the different sessions by sharing their knowledge, research, and experience.

The programme will create a powerful learning environment through lectures, seminars, workshops, poster sessions, a film forum, and on-site visits. It will also be an occasion to feel part of a community of practice, with cultural events that include participation in a traditional village fešta, a tour of the island, a visit to a Neolithic temple, and a boat tour.

Places are limited to 20 applicants. The application form, criteria for selection, and information about venue and costs are attached.

There is no registration fee for those staying at the conference venue. Selected participants will meet travel, accommodation, and per diem expenses. Individuals may wish to apply for European mobility funding at their respective institutions.

APPLICATION: Final deadline: 15 February 2019 | Processed ASAP (latest by 15 March)